

Life in the mountains has always been tough. Despite decades of development, it is not getting any easier. Himalaya and Hindu Kush countries have specific needs which must get the priority they deserve.

This book, jointly produced by the Asia Pacific Mountain Network and Panos Institute South Asia, brings a fresh new perspective to the complex problems, innovative solutions and the remarkable ability of mountain peoples to adapt to changing circumstances.

