

Appropriate Technologies and Practices in Participatory Integrated Watershed Management

Objective To identify and understand local conditions and resources and the extent and consequences of land degradation.	Identify and understand local conditions and resources and the extent and consequences of land degradation.
To identify and understand the constraints and the opportunities available for rehabilitation of degraded lands and the major challenges to be faced.	Identify and understand the constraints and the opportunities available for rehabilitation of degraded lands and the major challenges to be faced.
To highlight experiences and lessons learned in rehabilitation of degraded lands in the Asian region.	Highlight experiences and lessons learned in rehabilitation of degraded lands in the Asian region.
What is land degradation? Land degradation is the loss of land utility or efficiency.	Land degradation is the loss of land utility or efficiency.